

1996

PRESIDENT	Alfred Newman
VICE-PRESIDENTS	Glen McLaughlin (Northern California) Bill Warren (Southern California)
SECRETARY	Robert Berlo
TREASURER	Thomas Worth
EDITOR	Sarah Crumb

PROGRAMS

January 20 - Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena

- Maps of the Pacific Coast of North America until 1800*; Norman J. W. Thrower, Professor of Geography & author, UCLA
- The Assembly and Writing of a New Book, The Mapping of California as an Island*; Glen McLaughlin, Venture Leasing Associates, Saratoga, CA, author and collector.
- Pictorial Maps with Emphasis on Los Angeles and California*; Glen Creason, Map Librarian, Los Angeles Public Library
- Map Publishing and Distribution World-Wide*; Will Tefft, MapLink, Santa Barbara
- The Library of Congress Map Digitization Project and its Availability on the Internet*; J. Douglas Crawford, President, Magellan Geographix, Goleta
- Side Imaging Radar and the Generation of Flyovers and Three Dimensional Images*; Dr. Anthony Freeman, Group Supervisor, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena

June 22 - Lone Mountain Conference Center,
University of San Francisco, San Francisco

- Islands in Dispute: Offshore Territorial Claims of States Delineated by Maps*; Norman J. W. Thrower, Department of Geography, UCLA
- The Roy V. Boswell Collection for the History of Cartography*; Dr. Albert R. Vogeler, Curator – CSU Fullerton
- Display of Maps Relating to Chinese-Western Cultural History*; Mark Mir, Research Fellow and Archivist, Ricci Institute, University of San Francisco
- Behind the Scenes in Current Map Production*; Susan P. Waldorf, President, CEO and Mark Williams, Cartographer, Eureka Cartography.
- Space Age Mapping – A GPS Primer*; Zoltan F. Biacs, Senior Software Engineer, Trimble Navigation
- Mapping the Population History of California Places: 1770-1996*; Robert C. Berlo, Internal Communications Manager, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

October 19 - Special Program, University of California, Berkeley

- Workshop on the History of Cartography Project*; David Woodward, Editor of HOC and Professor of Geography at University of Wisconsin, Madison

1997

PRESIDENT	Bill Warren
VICE-PRESIDENTS	Glen McLaughlin (Northern California) Reese Benson (Southern California)
SECRETARY	Robert Berlo
TREASURER	Thomas Worth
PAST PRESIDENT	Alfred W. Newman

PROGRAMS

January 25 - California State University, Northridge
Sierra Hall

- Bridging the Internet into Cartography*; Eugene Turner,
Geography Department, CSUN
- Digital Mapping of the Socio-Economic Landscape*; William
Bowen, Geography Department, CSUN
- CSUN Map Library Tour*; Michael Swift, Map Librarian, CSUN
- The Map Collection of the San Diego Historical Society Research
Archives*; Muriel Strickland, Map Curator, San Diego
Historical Society
- Access to Earth Science Information through the Internet*;
Dr. Hong-lie Qiu, Department of Geography and Urban Affairs, California State University Los Angeles
- Behind the Scenes in Current Map Production*; Susan P. Waldorf, President and CEO, Eureka Cartography

June 14 - San Francisco Main Library, San Francisco

- Power and Play in the Japanese City: Early Modern Maps of Kyoto and Edo*; Mary Elizabeth Berry, Professor, History Department, University of California, Berkeley
- San Francisco from the Perspective of a Regional Geographer*; Max C. Kirkeberg, Professor, Department of Geography and Human Environmental Studies, San Francisco State University.
- San Francisco Mani Library Tour*; Joan Haskell, General
Collections; Carol Coon, Government Maps; Susan
Goldstein, San Francisco History Center; Asa Peavey,
Special Collections and Rare Books
- Digital Mapping of the Socio-Economic Landscape*; William
Bowen, Geography Department, CSUN
- The Discovery and Mapping of Humboldt Bay*; Colonel E. W.
Giesecke, Ret., Maritime History Writer, Olympia, WA.
- The Evolution of the Traveler's Friend, the Guidebook*;
Reese Benson, CMS Vice President for Southern California,
San Gabriel, CA

1998

PRESIDENT	Bill Warren
VICE-PRESIDENTS	Alfred Newman (acting –No. California) Reese Benson (Southern California)
SECRETARY	Robert Berlo
TREASURER	Thomas Worth
PAST PRESIDENT	Alfred W. Newman

PROGRAMS

January 31 - Huntington Library, Art Collection and Botanical Gardens, San Marino, CA, Friends Hall

Hidden Cartographers, Women in Cartography; Dr. Judith Tyner, California State University, Long Beach

The Atlas of American Frontiers, its Writing and Publication; Dr. Martin Ridge, Senior Research Associate, Huntington Library and Professor Emeritus, California Institute of Technology

Passage to Asia: Europe and the East in the Sixteenth Century; Bill Frank, Curator, Hispanic, Cartographic, and Modern Western Historical Manuscripts, Huntington Library

Treasures of the Huntington Library's Map Collection; Alan Jutzi, Avery Chief Curator of Rare Books, Huntington Library

The Kenneth Hill Collection, part of the Mandeville Special Collections at UCSD; Linda Claasen, Curator, UCSD (scheduled but not delivered)

Global Positioning Systems, Where are They Today and Where are They Going Tomorrow?; Donald Meyer, Public Relations Director, Magellan Systems Corporation, San Dimas, CA

June 13 - Library and Courts Building, State Capitol, Sacramento

The History of the Numbered Highways of the West; Bob Berlo, CMS Secretary, Livermore, CA

The California Gold Rush Maps; Gary F. Kurutz, Director of Special Collections, California State Library

Maps & Civilization: the Literature of the History of Cartography; Norman J. W. Thrower, Professor, Geography Department, UCLA and author.

Eusebio Francisco Kino, More than a Pretty Map; Bill Warren, CMS President, Pasadena, CA

Tour of California Railroad Museum; Ellen L. Haltzman, Librarian, California Railroad Museum

1999

PRESIDENT	Bill Warren
VICE-PRESIDENTS	Marianne Hinckle (No. California) Greg McIntosh (Southern California)
SECRETARY	Pam Kreil
TREASURER	Reese Benson
PAST PRESIDENT	Alfred W. Newman

PROGRAMS

January 23 - Karpeles Manuscript Library Museum,
Santa Barbara

The Adventures of an Itinerant Mapmaker; Will Tefft, Publishing
Manager, MapLink

Manuscripts and Maps: A Collector's View; David Karpeles, Karpeles Manuscript Library Museums

Mountain Bikers: Can Maps Help them Co-exist with Hikers and Horsemen?; Frank Nielsen, Franko's Maps

Popular World Map Projections and a New Design to Overcome some Shortcomings; Abbass Bazeghi, Professional Architect and cartographer

Cognitive Cartography, or Why Can't Some People Read Maps?; Dan Montello, Department of Geography, UC Santa Barbara

Visit to MapLink, Goleta, hosted by Will Tefft

September 18 – J. Paul Leonard Library, San Francisco
State University

The Frank V. de Bellis Collection; Marianne Hinkle, CMS VP and Colomba Ghigliotti, Curator

Listening for Maps; Deborah Rodgers, Masters Candidate, SFSU

Beauties and Beasts: Celestial Cartography Before 1900; Nick Kanas, M.D., Professor of Psychiatry, UCSF and Associate Chief, Mental Health Service, V.A. Medical Center, S.F.

Visiting the SFSU Planetarium; Dr. Geoffrey Marcy, SFSU

Imaging Spectroscopy, a New Tool for Cartographers; Dr.
Wally Jansen, Industrial Geologist

Viewing the de Bellis Collection, Treasures from the Italian Past

2000

PRESIDENT	Glen McLaughlin
VICE-PRESIDENTS	Stanley Walsh (Northern California) Greg McIntosh (Southern California)
SECRETARY	Pam Kreil
TREASURER	Priscilla R. Hexter
PAST PRESIDENT	Bill Warren

PROGRAMS

April 6,7 & 8 – Friends Hall, Huntington Library, San Marino

Joint Meeting with Philip Lee Phillips Society

Apr. 6th - Reception and Annual Banquet, Philip Lee Phillips Society; McCormick & Schmick Restaurant, Pasadena

Apr. 7th - British Exploration of the Pacific; Dr Norman J. W. Thrower, UCLA and noted author

Late 18th Century Spanish Mapping of the Pacific North American Coast; Dr. John Hébert, Chief, Geography & Mapping Division, Library of Congress

*Cartographic Transitions in Hawaii; Gary Fitzpatrick, Library of Congress and author *Early Mapping of Hawaii

Treasures of the Huntington Library's Map Collection; Alan Jutzi, Avery Chief Curator of Rare Books, Huntington Library
Mapping of the Pacific Ocean Floor; Maria Tharp, noted marine map expert

An Introduction to Traditional Chinese Mapping; Dr. Cordell Yee, St John's College, expert Chinese Cartography.

Power and Play in the Japanese City: Early Modern Mapping of Kyoto and Edo; Dr. Mary Elizabeth Berry, University of California, Berkeley.

Apr. 8th – Tour J. Paul Getty Museum followed by wine & cheese at Bill & Jane Warren's home, Pasadena

October 7 – Branner Earth Sciences Library, Stanford University, Palo Alto

Henry Briggs, Mathematician and Cartographer ; Thomas Wyman, Stanford Alumnus

Samuel Pepys and Geography; Dr. Norman J. W. Thrower, Geography Department, UCLA

Collecting Cumbria; Muriel Strickland, volunteer curator, San Diego Historical Society

An Introduction to iiMap; Eleesa Hager, CEO, iiMap.com (formerly Small Blue Planet)

Early Mapping of the Highest Sierra Nevada; Dr. James G. Moore, USGS, Menlo Park

Tour of Branner Earth Sciences Library and Collection; Led by Julie Sweetkind Singer, Map Librarian

Reception at Glen & Ellen McLaughlin's home, Saratoga